

Anna Zierfuss, Parent Navigator & MAP Program Coordinator Stone Soup Group

Parent Navigator, Anna Zierfuss has lived in Fairbanks over 35 years and has volunteered or worked in social services since she was young when her grandmother introduced her as a nursing home visitor. She achieved her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology at the University of Alaska Fairbanks and a LEND Fellowship at the University of Alaska Anchorage. She has extensive understanding of school issues like IEPs, 504s and research into resources from her time as a parent and auntie. Her experience is comprised of assisting seniors, teaching on a wide range of topics and finding resources for people or families with disabilities.